

PRAY FOR ME

I'm one, who loves the danger do everything I want i was a lonely ranger no time for keeps take a chance to get away even when you tell me to stay you've given up your dirty lies and now there's fear, fear, fear

*You gotta pray for me
pray for me
pray for me
so you pray for me*

dark red eyes in black rooms no more faces there to find a girl with fearless muscles and an evil's mind now that take the wrong direction i gotta be strong for staying this way you wanna help me but there's only one way

you gotta pray ...

*gotta give it away
feel that evil cold touch and gotta give my live away you gotta, you gotta, almost never beware of that evil faces coming up from behind please don't give me away to this, to this, to this*

you gotta pray ...
